Dear Mr. Backus:-

I am wondering if you have not overlooked sending your cheque to cover your dues as an associate member of this Society for the year 1918, (five dollars). For some reason you may have failed to receive the first memorandum of this.

Dear Madam:-

I have your note enclosing cheque for five dollars - thank you very much. We have carefully gone over our records, and I can not find that we received a cheque from Lieut. Backus for his dues. Is it possible that you have been thinking of the cheque sent for his Belgian medal?

We had learned of Lieut. Backus' entry into the service, and one of the stars on our service flag is his. If he had been a member previous to this year, by direction of the Council his dues would be removed it is for the period of the war. But since this is the first payment of dues through which he qualifies as a member that ruling does not apply.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary.

Dear Sir:-

I thought I had already tendered my resignation as a member of the Am. Humanistic Society.
I must permit me to do so now.
It is with regret that I do this
